Book 2 of San Diego Author's Teen Fantasy Adventure Released

Conor and the Crossworlds: Peril in the Corridors will be available for purchase December 1st. This is the second in a wild five book fantasy adventure series for middle school/high school readers. Kevin Gerard, a local San Diego resident, wrote the story between 2002 and 2006.

The Conor and the Crossworlds story opens with Breaking the Barrier, a ten year old boy's journey aboard Purugama, a champion and protector of the Crossworlds. It is garnering attention across the country, and Mr. Gerard will be traveling to at least ten states in early 2008 for author talks at schools and libraries. In January, he will visit Mississippi for a series of talks at the Lamar County Library System.

The remaining three novels in the series will be released each holiday season, with Conor and the Crossworlds, Surviving an Altered World, coming in December of 2008.

Kevin Gerard has written short stories for the highly popular Chicken Soup for the Soul books for years. In October, 2006, he appeared on the KUSI Morning Show with Sandra Maas to discuss one of the Chicken Soup collections.

Employed at Cal State San Marcos, Mr. Gerard teaches sociology and statistics when not actively writing for publication.
