San Diego Author to be featured at West Hollywood Book Fair

San Diego, September 18, 2007 – Kevin Gerard, a San Diego author, will be featured at the West Hollywood Book Fair on September 30, 2007. His young adult fantasy series will be on display at the Authors' Coalition/Red Engine Press booth for the duration of the fair.

Mr. Gerard will be signing copies of his first book, Conor and the Crossworlds: Breaking the Barrier between 1:00 and 2:00 at the Authors' Coalition/Red Engine Press booth. Books will be available for purchase, and book cover posters for books one and two will be given away with each signed copy.

The Conor and the Crossworlds story opens with Breaking the Barrier, a ten year old boy's journey aboard Purugama, a champion and protector of the Crossworlds. It is garnering attention across the country, and Mr. Gerard will be traveling as far as Maine this fall to meet requests for author talks at schools and libraries.

MORE...

The remaining four novels in the series, already written by Mr. Gerard, will be released each holiday season, starting with Conor and the Crossworlds, Peril in the Corridors, in December of 2007.

Kevin Gerard has written short stories for the highly popular Chicken Soup for the Soul books for years. In October, 2006, he appeared on the KUSI Morning Show with Sandra Maas to discuss one of the Chicken Soup collections.

Employed at Cal State San Marcos, Mr. Gerard teaches sociology and statistics when not actively writing for publication.
