Local Author's Work Featured on Teen Radio in Florida

San Diego, August 24, 2007 – WKID96.7 in Clearwater, Florida, has started to read Conor and the Crossworlds: Breaking the Barrier during live radio broadcasts. They have already read chapters one and two. Tonight at 5PM PST, they will be reading chapter three. Every night at 5PM PST, they will read successive chapters of the book.

Adam, the owner of the station, says to listen to the live reading, "click on hear us live then click on the link." www.wkid967fm.com

The Conor and the Crossworlds story opens with Breaking the Barrier, a ten year old boy's journey aboard Purugama, a champion and protector of the Crossworlds. It is garnering attention across the country, and Mr. Gerard will be traveling as far as Maine this fall to meet requests for author talks at schools and libraries.

The remaining four novels in the series, already written by Mr. Gerard, will be released each holiday season, starting with Conor and the Crossworlds, Peril in the Corridors, in December of 2007.

Kevin Gerard has written short stories for the highly popular Chicken Soup for the Soul books for years. In October, 2006, he appeared on the KUSI Morning Show with Sandra Maas to discuss one of the Chicken Soup collections.

Employed at Cal State San Marcos, Mr. Gerard teaches sociology and statistics when not actively writing for publication.
